

The new study score series

The perfect companion to the music of the 20th and 21st century
– a must for every music lover

Universal Edition introduces a new study score standard. These completely redesigned scores offer an unparalleled insight into the music of the last hundred years. Great care has been taken to select the best available content for this journey through music history, and every score has been edited according to the latest quality standards.

The new study score series combines historic masterpieces with first-class editorial content, prefaces, and a highly legible, clean notation, in new large-format editions (24 cm x 17 cm), all in the trusted Universal Edition quality. Further titles will be added continuously to this collector's library of the musical history of the 20th and 21st century.
