

Der Frühling

(La primavera)

Antonio Vivaldi op. 8 Nr. 1
bearbeitet von Jean-Jacques Rousseau herausgegeben von Laurent Hay

Allegro

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. It begins with a treble clef and a common time signature. The tempo is marked 'Allegro'. The score consists of ten staves of music. The first staff contains the initial melodic phrase. The second and third staves continue the melody with various rhythmic patterns. The fourth staff features a complex rhythmic pattern with many sixteenth notes. The fifth and sixth staves continue with similar rhythmic patterns. The seventh and eighth staves show a change in the melodic line. The ninth staff features a series of eighth notes. The tenth staff concludes the piece with a final melodic phrase. Performance markings include accents, slurs, and breath marks throughout the score.

The first section of the music consists of ten staves. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 2/4 time signature. The melody is characterized by a steady eighth-note accompaniment with a more active upper voice. The first staff contains a trill-like figure. The second staff has a slur over the first four measures. The third staff features a slur over the first six measures. The fourth staff includes a trill-like figure and a slur over the last two measures. The fifth staff has a slur over the first six measures and a plus sign (+) above the final note. The sixth staff continues the eighth-note accompaniment. The seventh staff has a slur over the first six measures. The eighth staff has a slur over the first six measures. The ninth staff has a trill-like figure and a slur over the last two measures. The tenth staff concludes the section with a final note and a double bar line.

Largo

The second section of the music, marked 'Largo', consists of four staves. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 3/4 time signature. The tempo is significantly slower than the first section. The melody is more spacious and features a mix of quarter and half notes. The first staff has a slur over the first two measures. The second staff has a slur over the first four measures. The third staff has a slur over the first four measures. The fourth staff concludes the section with a final note and a double bar line.
