The right page of the manuscript contains six staves of handwritten musical notation. The notation continues from the left page, showing complex rhythmic patterns and melodic lines. The paper is heavily stained, particularly in the lower half of the page. The word "Finis" is written in the lower right corner of the page.
