Foreword

The personality and life of St. Francis of Assisi have long inspired me. In 2013, on the 25th anniversary of the Diocesan Classical Gymnasium Ljubljana, I wrote a cantata for two soloists, two choirs, orchestra and organ in which I set his most famous prayer, The Canticle of the Sun, to music.

As its melodies, rhythms and harmonies lodged in my thoughts, I decided to dedicate a Latin mass to the saint using the cantata's themes. This is a mass for choir, string orchestra and drum set. Francis's humble prayer and life were simple and so is my music, consisting of tuneful melodies, driving rhythms and fresh harmonies. Though humble, the song is thoughtfully shaped, hiding an enormous treasure of thoughts. Thus, I wanted to shape my composition as skillfully and exactly as possible.

The Benedictus is surprising and not lyrical, as is usual. I wanted to stress the moment when the crowd greets Jesus on his triumphal Palm Sunday entry into Jerusalem. In the Credo, "et incarnatus est" musically springs from the same motif as the Agnus Dei, and the "... dona nobis pacem" answers the question "Who shall bring us peace?". The mass features many such musical connections. The choir and strings complement one another, but the percussionist can improvise his part as well as the transitions between the movements, thus giving every performance its own unique sound.

Močnik is among the most performed contemporary Slovenian composers abroad. His music is performed worldwide by professional and top amateur choirs, and has been recorded on numerous CDs.

Vorwort

Persönlichkeit und Leben des heiligen Franz von Assisi haben mich schon lange inspiriert. 2013, anlässlich des 25. Jubiläums des Diocesan Classical Gymnasium Ljubljana habe ich eine Kantate für zwei Soli, zwei Chöre, Orchester und Orgel geschrieben, in der ich sein berühmtestes Gebet in Musik gesetzt habe: den Sonnengesang.

Als die Melodien, Rhythmen und Harmonien meine Gedanken füllten, beschloss ich, dem Heiligen eine Messe zu widmen und dabei die Themen der Kantate zu verwenden. Es entstand die Messe für Chor, Streichorchester und Drumset. Franziskus' demütiges Gebet und sein Leben waren einfach, und genauso ist meine Musik: klangvolle Melodien, treibende Rhythmen und frische Harmonien. Der Gesang ist bei aller Demut durchdacht geformt und verbirgt einen enormen Schatz an Gedanken. Deshalb wollte ich meine Komposition so kunstfertig und exakt wie möglich anlegen.

Das Benedictus ist überraschend und nicht, wie üblich, lyrischen Charakters. Ich wollte den Augenblick hervorheben, in dem Jesus am Palmsonntag triumphal in Jerusalem einzieht und von der Menschenmenge begrüßt wird. Im Credo entspringt das „et incarnatus est“ demselben Motiv wie das Agnus Dei, und das „dona nobis pacem“ beantwortet die Frage: Wer wird uns Frieden bringen? Die Messe bietet viele solcher musikalischer Verknüpfungen. Chor und Streicher ergänzen sich, doch der Perkussionist kann seinen Part und die Übergänge zwischen den Sätzen improvisieren und so jeder Aufführung ein einzigartiges Klangbild verleihen.
